"THE GARDEN PARTY."

Big Musical Event to Be Presented Under the Auspices of Open House Club and Haile Club - Directed by Mr. and Mrs. Rodenburgh of Boston -Fair Maidens and Gallant Men to

The Open House club and Halle club of this city have completed arrangements for a production of "The Garden Party" and it will be given at the Broadway theater Feb. 13 and 20. This is something new in the amusement line and people who attend will certainly get their money's worth, as well as see the biggest, brightest and best amnteur affair before the public today. All of Norwich's best talent will be levied upon for the different will be levied upon for the different will be a chorus of 150 little girls, besides any number of most attractive specialties, bright and funny conversation, catchy, up-to-date music, all sorts of novelties and something doing all the time. This is the same enterrainment given with every care and detail by the director in such cities as Portland, Me., Newpert, R. L. Harrford, New Haven, Albanzy, N. Y. and Boston, and no pains and expense will be spared to make this an event long to be remembered in the annals of Norwich's amateur events.

BROADWAY THEATER. "Our New Minister."

The comedy of "Our New Minister" one of solid qualities. In its story, its characters and in its situations d dialogue it is easily one of the ightest plays of recent years. The unpany engaged in its interpretation excellent throughout. The fact that same people have been playing the es for four or five years should be coal attest of peculiar adaptability Joseph Conyers, who has won trans-continental fame by his impersonation of the character of the quaint town constable of the comedy, continues in this famous role. Scenically, the production is one of the most important of the year. It will be seen here next Friday evening, Jan. 22d.
